

Call for Application

Introduction

Taiwan Fellowship is established to award foreign experts and scholars interested in researches related to Taiwan, cross-strait relations, Asia-Pacific region and Sinology to conduct advanced research at universities or academic institutions in Taiwan. Up to now, there have been 934 scholars from 78 countries being accepted by this program. Taiwan Fellowship, echoing the APEC Scholarship Initiative, provides 12 Chinese Taipei APEC Fellowship openings per year exclusively for scholars and experts from developing APEC economies. Taiwan Fellowship is open for application in May and June every year and recipients will conduct their research in Taiwan as early as January the next year. The year of 2019 online application period will be from May 1 to June 30, 2019.

1. Financial assistance

- (1) Monthly grants are paid at the beginning of every month.
 - a. Professors, associate professors, research fellows, or associate research fellows: NT$60,000 (approximately 1,710 EUR).
 - b. Assistant professors, assistant research fellows, or doctoral candidates: NT$50,000 (approximately 1,425 EUR).
- (2) One round-trip, economy-class ticket for the most direct route to Taiwan (The subsidy will be decided in accordance with the relevant regulations).
- (3) The terms of fellowship are 3 to 12 months.
- (4) Accident insurance (plus a medical insurance for accidental injuries) coverage of NT$1 million (approximately 28,470 EUR).

2. Eligibility

Recipients shall be foreign professors, associate professors, assistant professors, post-doctoral researchers, doctoral candidates, or doctoral program students at related departments of overseas universities, or are research fellows at an equivalent level in academic institutions abroad.

3. Guidelines to the Taiwan Fellowship

I. To implement the Taiwan Fellowship (hereinafter referred to as “the Fellowship”), and encourage experts and scholars overseas who are interested in topics related to the Republic of China (Taiwan), cross-strait relations, mainland China, the Asia Pacific, and Sinology to pursue advanced studies at Taiwan’s universities, colleges or research institutions, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs (MOFA) of the Republic of China (Taiwan) has issued the following guidelines.

II. A scholar’s field of study should be in the social sciences and humanities, with a topic related to Taiwan, cross-strait relations, mainland China, the Asia Pacific, and Sinology.

III. The Fellowship recipients (herein referred to as “the recipients”) are as follows:

A. foreign nationals who are professors, associate professors, assistant professors, post-doctoral researchers, doctoral candidates, or doctoral program students at related departments of overseas universities, or are research fellows at an equivalent level in academic institutions abroad;

B. candidates recommended by ROC (Taiwan) overseas missions with a field of study on Taiwan’s foreign relations or cross-strait relations.

Those who are currently conducting research, teaching, or studying in Taiwan are ineligible.

IV. The Fellowship includes the following:

A. Ticket subsidy:

1. The recipients will be entitled to one direct round-trip economy-class ticket subsidized between their country of residence and Taiwan.
 2. Tickets will be subsidized according to the actual purchasing price, but with a maximum subsidy for each area as follows:
 - a) Northeast and Southeast Asia: NT$35,000;
 - b) Europe and West Asia: NT$60,000;
 - c) North America: NT$55,000;
 - d) Central and South America: NT$75,000;
 - e) Africa: NT$90,000;
 - f) Oceania: NT$65,000.
 3. After the recipients arrive in Taiwan, they must submit the following documents and sign receipts to apply for the subsidy:
 - a) stub of their tickets or e-tickets;
 - b) receipts for their tickets or other paperwork proving payment was made.
- B. Monthly stipends are as follows:
1. Professors, associate professors, research fellows, or associate research fellows: NT$60,000; and
 2. Assistant professors, assistant research fellows, post-doctoral researchers, doctoral candidates, doctoral program students, and other candidates recommended by ROC (Taiwan) missions: NT$50,000.
 3. The minimum duration of a fellowship is three months, and the maximum one year.
- C. Group accident insurance is provided during the term of research in Taiwan (NT$1 million for an accidental death, and NT$50,000 for accident injury medical benefits.)
- V. The total number of recipients is subject to MOFA's annual budget.

VI. Applicants should first submit an on-line application form and then submit the following documents to the ROC Embassy or Representative Office in or nearest to their country of residence, as appropriate, for preliminary review:

- A. Application form;
- B. Resume (including a publication list);
- C. Research proposal (Three pages in principle using a standard research format); and
- D. Two letters of recommendation, or one letter of recommendation and one letter of consent from the chief administrator of their institute.

VII. The evaluation process is as follows:

- A. The ROC Embassy or Representative Office receives the application, verifies the data, and evaluates the applicant's academic influence or potential;
- B. The ROC Embassy or Representative Office describes the reasons for recommending a candidate as a reference for the evaluation committee;
- C. MOFA invites scholars, experts and representatives from MOFA to form an evaluation committee for screening the candidates for the Fellowship;
- D. The candidate receives and submits to MOFA a "Letter of Consent for Research" from one or more universities or academic institutions in Taiwan, thereby completing the Fellowship application process.

VIII. The recipients should observe the following regulations:

- A. The research proposal and research area provided in the application cannot be changed without MOFA's approval. If any change is needed, prior consent from MOFA should be sought.
- B. The recipients should submit their research findings in writing (at least 20 pages) to MOFA within three months after the end of the project. During their stay in Taiwan, the recipients should attend academic seminars and relevant activities held by MOFA and commissioned organizers.

- C. During the Fellowship period, the recipients are not allowed to receive any scholarships granted by other governmental agencies or public or private academic institutions and schools based in Taiwan. In addition, recipients cannot engage in part-time work without consent from MOFA.
 - D. While in Taiwan, the recipients must abide by ROC law. If a recipient is convicted of violating the Criminal Code or engages in any severe misconduct during the duration of the Fellowship, the recipient's Fellowship will be revoked.
 - E. All expenses exceeding the Fellowship amount must be covered by the recipients.
 - F. All related oral or written research reports made by recipients must mention or note the support of the Taiwan Fellowship program.
 - G. Recipients must make their own research arrangements in Taiwan.
 - H. Recipients must submit their travel itinerary and information on the cooperating research institution(s) in Taiwan to the ROC Embassies and Representative Offices in or nearest to their country of residence, as appropriate, before leaving for Taiwan.
- IX. For those awarded a fellowship shorter than six months in duration, the ROC Embassies or Representative Offices abroad will issue a visitor visa. For those awarded a fellowship over six months in duration, the ROC Embassies or Representative Offices abroad will issue a residence visa. Visa fees will be waived in both cases, and "FR-Taiwan Fellowship Recipient" will be noted on the visa.

4. Application procedure: Please browse at <http://taiwanfellowship.ncl.edu.tw/eng/apply.aspx>

Application Procedure for the Taiwan Fellowship

Read the Guidelines to the Taiwan Fellowship

Prepare the application documents

1. Resume (including a publication list)
 2. Research proposal
 3. Two letters of recommendation or one letter of recommendation and one letter of agreement from the highest administrative director of your institution.
-

Online Application

Fill in the application and upload the above application documents

Applicants should print their complete application form and send all application documents to an R.O.C \(Taiwan\) Embassy or Representative Office by post.

The reviewing committee will select Taiwan Fellowship candidates based on the comments of R.O.C. (Taiwan) Embassies and Representative Offices, and inform the applicants of the result by e-mail.

The candidates should contact ROC universities or research institutions and obtain an admission document for them to do research in Taiwan (admission document)

The candidates should go to Application Update, upload their admission document, and check the Terms of Agreement for the Taiwan Fellowship.

The candidates will become the recipients, which will be announced in the News on our website.

The recipients begin their research in Taiwan (Information for Recipients)

5. Miscellaneous

(1) Fellowship administrator: Center for Chinese Studies at National
Central Library: <http://ccs.ncl.edu.tw/>

(2) Contact person: Ms. Elaine Wu

Tel: +886-2-2361-9132 #317

Fax: +886-2-2371-2126