

Dear Students,

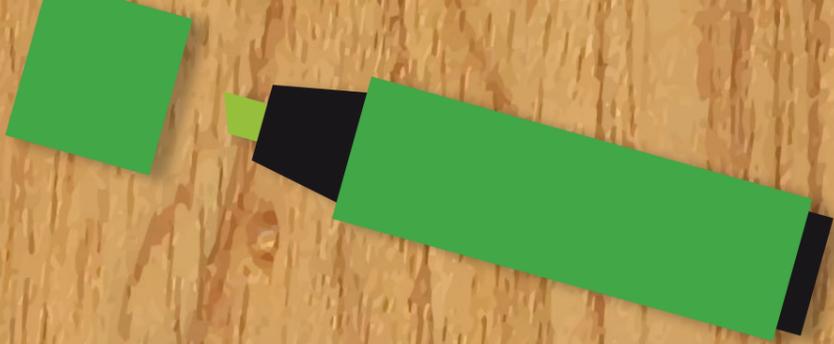

On behalf of the European Union Information and Cultural Center (EUICC) we are writing to share an exciting opportunity with you for Kosovo students in the 11th and 12th grade.

This week European Union Information and Cultural Center (EUICC) is launching an essay competition asking students to respond to the question “What does the EU mean to me” for the chance to win a tablet and gift certificate for Amazon Kindle. Winning entries will be invited to participate in a ceremony in their honor at the EUICC in Pristina. Essays are due by March 15th, 2016. The Ministry of Education, Science and Technology will support this initiative to engage young people on this important topic while also encouraging their English writing skills.

Complete information is available on our website at: <http://www.euicc-ks.com/euicc-essay-competition>

The competition has been shared on the European Union Office in Kosovo Facebook Page, which you can share directly:

EUICC Essay Competition What does the EU mean to me?

Calling secondary school students in grades 11 and 12!
The European Union Information and Cultural Centre (EUICC)
has an exciting opportunity for you!

Do you see the EU as providing opportunity, supporting the rule of law, improving your education or rights? Or maybe the EU supports a development project in your neighborhood.

What has your experience with the EU been or what do you hope it will be in the future? The EU wants to hear what the EU means for you, your neighborhood and your everyday life.

Share your thoughts with us in this 1-page essay competition answering the question “What does the EU mean to me?” for a chance to win a tablet and gift certificate to purchase e-books.
The top 3 essays will be awarded a prize and honored in a ceremony at the EUICC in Pristina.

The deadline for submissions is March 15, 2016
